PROCEEDINGS

FRIDAY

The Tate County Baptist Association met with the Hopewel Baptist church, Arkabutla, Miss., October 12, 1923, at 10 A. M. Rev. O. A. Eure, of Como, conducted the opening service of prayer and praise.

In the absence of the moderator, Rev. B. F. Whitten, Dr. B. P. Robertson, of Senatobia, was elected temporary chairman. The messengers from the several churches of the Association presented their credentials and the body went into the election of permanent officers which resulted as follows: B. P. Robertson, Moderator, E. S. Flynt, Vice-Moderator, and J. P. Stamps, Secretary and Treasurer.

The moderator appointed the following brethren as a committee on Order of Business: E. S. Flynt, W. E. Lee, J. E. Eoff, and N. A Spencer. Dr. R. B. Gunter, our State Secretary, led the association in prayer. Dr. B. P. Robertson preached the Introductory Sermon on "The Stewardship of Life", using as his text Ist Peter 4:10. The body then adjourned for the noon lunch.

The asociation reassembled at 1:30 P. M. A short devotional service was conducted in which several appropriate hymns were sung and J. E. Eoff led in prayer. The committee on Order of Business made its report which was adopted.

The moderator announced the committee on Nominations as follows: M. A. Burford, Chairman, Don Chambers, Dr. M. C. Ellis, J. G Lee and J. M. Petty. B. P. Robertson read the report on Missions. The report was discussed by Dr. R. B. Gunter, M. S. Dougherty, and others. The report showed that all the missionary work of southern Baptists, both State, Home and Foreign, is in a most prosperous and hopeful condition. And if all the Baptists of the convention will pay their pledges the work will not be embarrassed and the full seventy five million dollars will be paid into the Treasury of the Lord by the close of the year 1924. The address of Dr. Gunter was informing and encouraging and inspiring. The report was adopted.

Dr. Gunter presented a series of resolutions looking toward the next campaign of the Southern Baptist Convention in which another five year campaign was endorsed with the proviso that the subscriptions shall be made annually. The resolutions were unanimously adopted.

Dr. Robertson presented fourteen requisites for a standard association, to-gethers with the aims of the association for 1924. This paper was unanimously adopted and a collection was takey to pay the expense of the same.

Bro. M. S. Dougherty read the report on Education. The report showed that all our schools in the state are in a most excellent condition. The Mississippi College at Clinton is now a Standard College. The Woman's College at Hattiesburg and the Blue Mountain College are both Accredited Colleges on the Standard List. The two Junior Colleges are in a splendid condition. The report urged all Baptists to patronize their own schools. Bro. Dougherty, Dr. Gunter and others took a lively interest in the discussion of the report. The three Southwide Seminaries are doing the best work in their history.

The report of Mrs. J. H. Wallace on Digest of Letters was read and adopted The report showed that all the churches except one were represented at this meeting by messengers and that letters had been sent.

The body adjourned to meet again at 10 A. M. Saturday. Rev. W. E. Lee was announced to preach at 7 P. M. this evening.

SATURDAY

The association reassembled at 10 A. M., October 13. Rev. J. L. Price of the Coldwater Association, conducted the opening service 2 Corinthians 5:1-21.

On motion of Rev. E. S. Flynt the association decided to have two sermons at the next session, namely, Doctrinal and Missionary, and the committee on Nominations was instructed to provide for the same.

The report on Social Service was read by Rev. W. E. Lee for J. M. Petty, the chairman of the committee. The report showed that all our benevolent institutions, such as the orphanage at Jackson, the hospitals at Jackson and Memphis, the Good Will Centers are in a good condition and are rendering a most blessed service. The report also emphasized the cooperative work of our people in law enforcement in the state. Brethren W. E. Lee and several others participated in the fine discussion of the report. The report was adopted.

Bro. J. M. Petty read the report on Nominations which was adopted and the contents of which may be found elsewhere in this minute.

The body ordered the Clerk to have the minutes printed and to distribute the same. He was further authorized to have the Constitution and By-Laws printed in the minutes. And he was also authorized to pay himself twenty five dollars for his services as Clerk.

While the women of the community were engaged in spreading the lunch at noon, the messengers and visiting participated in a Round Table discussion of the week points of our association.

The association adjourned at noon for lunch. Rev. O. A. Eure led in the closing prayer.

The body reassembled at 1:30 P. M. The moderator announced that the W. M. Us of the Association would have charge of the service and put on their well prepared program. Mrs. M. S. Dougherty presided and Mrs. L. Yates acted as secretary. Mrs. M. M. Powell conducted the devotional service. Mrs. Martin made a welcome address and Mrs. E. C. Turley responded. The roll of the Societies of the association was read and reports were made. The remarks by the president and the reports of the societies showed that the women of the association are doing a most excellent work.

The women elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: Mrs. M. S. Dougherty, President; Mrs. W. E. Still, Vice-President, and Mrs. Leslie Yates, Secretary.

The moderator led the body in special prayer at the request of Miss M. M. Lackey. Then Miss Lackey made a most informing and inspiring and helpful address on the work of the denomination, emphasizing especially the work of the women.

The following visitors were present during the session of the association: Dr. R. B. Gunter, State Mission Secretary, O. A. Eure, the new pastor of the church at Como, J. E. Eoff, of the Shelby County Association, Tenn., Miss M. M. Lackey, the State W. M. U. Secretary, J. L. Price, of the Coldwater association, J. S. Barnett, of the Coldwater association and W. E. Lee of the Panola County association.

The Association put itself on record as favoring the study of Stewardship and Missions in all the churches during the month of November.

The Association decided to hold the following sub-conventions during the associational year: Sunday School Convention at Mt. Zion church in December; Laymen's Convention, at Senatobia, in January; B. Y. P. U. Convention at Coldwater, in April; and W. M. U. Convention, at Hickory Grove, in March.

The moderator took charge of the association again, and on motion of E. S. Flynt the body adjourned to meet with the Senatobia church in 1924.
